CHOOSE HEPATOLOGY

If you're a resident considering gastroenterology/hepatology, hepatopathology, surgery, or GI radiology focused on hepatobiliary imaging, the Emerging Liver Scholars Resident Program is for you.

The program provides up to 30 medical and surgical residents the opportunity to travel to and attend The Liver Meeting®, the premier event of the year for hepatology professionals.

Residents who have completed their first or second year (or first through fourth year for surgical residents), are interested in academic medicine, and know an AASLD member who can serve as their mentor are eligible to apply.

Apply by April 8, 2016 at aasld.org/ELS.
